

Edison Electric
INSTITUTE

Stephanie Voyda

Senior Vice President of Communications and Member Engagement

Stephanie Voyda is Senior Vice President of Communications and Member Engagement for EEI. Stephanie joined EEI in 1997 and has held various positions of increased responsibility within the organization.

She directs EEI's communications team, overseeing advertising, branding, creative strategy and design, crisis communications, digital strategy, Electric Perspectives magazine and podcast, executive communications, media relations, policy communications, public opinion research, and strategic communications.

She also directs EEI's member engagement and meetings team and is responsible for EEI's U.S. and Associate member programs, as well as EEI's quarterly Board of Directors meetings and Annual Meeting.

Before joining EEI's communications department, Ms. Voyda served as the Legislative and Communications Coordinator for the Professional Aviation Safety Specialists, where she worked for almost six years on aviation safety related issues.

Ms. Voyda serves on the Board of the Electrical Safety Foundation International. She is a graduate of the American University, and lives in Arlington, Virginia.