

Edison Electric
INSTITUTE

Todd S. Manuel

Vice President, Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Transformation

Todd S. Manuel is Vice President, Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Transformation for the Edison Electric Institute. Mr. Manuel joins EEI as a loaned leader from Entergy Corporation, where he is director of organizational health and diversity.

At EEI, Mr. Manuel works with EEI member companies to advance the industry's DEI initiative, increasing workforce diversity and helping to shape the industry's long-term strategy for sustained DEI commitment.

At Entergy, Mr. Manuel has responsibility for developing and leading the company's strategy for improving organizational health, diversity, and inclusion. Additionally, he ensures the company's compliance with all requirements of the Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs and the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

Mr. Manuel joined Entergy in 2012 as assistant general counsel within the legal services department's litigation group. During his tenure, he has represented the company's interests in casualty and commercial matters.

Prior to joining Entergy, Mr. Manuel was a partner with the Baton Rouge law firm, Taylor, Porter, Brooks & Phillips, L.L.P., where he served as a member of the Executive Committee, Associates Committee and Chair of the firm's Diversity Committee. While with Taylor Porter he engaged primarily in general civil defense litigation.

Mr. Manuel holds a bachelor's degree in accounting from Louisiana State University, and a juris doctor from the Southern University Law Center in Baton Rouge. He also holds an executive certification in Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion from Georgetown University.