

Edison Electric
INSTITUTE

John S. Schlenker, CPA

Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer

John S. Schlenker has been the Edison Electric Institute's Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer since 2010. Prior to joining EEL in 1993, Mr. Schlenker served as manager of financial reporting at TRT Communications, senior auditor at Pannell Kerr Forster and tax accountant at Coopers and Lybrand.

Mr. Schlenker is a licensed CPA in the District of Columbia, holds the Chartered Global Management Accountant designation and is an active member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Greater Washington Society of Certified Public Accountants and the American Society of Association Executives (ASAE). He has also been honored by the ASAE with the Gold Circle Award for excellence and innovation in association financial management.

Mr. Schlenker served on the Parents of Children with Down Syndrome (NOVA) Board for 10 years, the Commonwealth of Virginia's Taskforce for Continuing Education for Adults with Disabilities and numerous organizations supporting children with disabilities. The Virginia Soccer Association inducted Mr. Schlenker into their Circle of Excellence in recognition of his commitment to coaching athletes with different abilities for over 20 years. Mr. Schlenker holds a B.S. in Business Administration from American University and lives in Fauquier County, Virginia with his wife Elizabeth and their three adult children.