

Brad Viator

Vice President, External Affairs

Brad Viator is Vice President of External Affairs for the Edison Electric Institute (EEI). Viator joined EEI in 2011, and his primary responsibilities include outreach to state elected officials, including state legislators, governors, and attorneys general. He manages EEI's online advocacy community, We Stand For Energy, and co-leads EEI's cross functional state practice.

Before joining EEI, Viator worked at the National Association of Realtors, focusing on electoral and legislative advocacy for federal elected officials. He also did extensive political campaign work at the local, state, and federal levels in several western states.

A native of Beaumont, Texas, Mr. Viator earned a B.S. in Political Science from Texas A&M University. He lives in Arlington, VA with his wife, Jessica, and three young children, James, Luke, and Juliette.
